Of Our Beloved Son and Brother, Herman R. Wale, Who Died March 29, 1909.

ONLY A YEAR. One year ago a ringing voice, A clear gray eye, And clustering curls of sunny hair, Fair to the fair to die.

Only a year, no voice, no smile, No glance of eye, No clustering curls of golden hair, Fair but to die!

One year ago, what loves, what schemes, what hopes, what high resolves, What generous strife! The silent picture on the wall, The burial stone, Of that beauty, life and joy Remain alone!

One year, one year, one little year, And so much gone! And yet the sun and moon of life Move calmly on.

The grave grows green, the flowers bloom fair, Above that head; No sorrowing cut of leaf or spray Says he is dead.

We praise or hush of merry birds That sing above, Tell us how coldly sleeps below The form we love, Where hast thou been this year, beloved?

What hast thou seen,—What visions flash what glorious life, Where hast thou been?

The veil! The veil! so thin, so strong! Twink as an angel's wing, The music veils when shall it fall, That we may see?

Not dead, not sleeping, not even gone, But present still, And waiting for the coming hour Of God's sweet will.

Lord of the living and the dead, Our Savior dear! We lay in silence at thy feet This sad, sad year.

OTHER INFANTS BOARDED OUT BY MRS. BAKER

Woman and Husband Leave

Boarding Place Suddenly After Being Questioned.

Believed to Have Done a General Brokerage Business in Homeless Babies.

Investigator Morrissey Follows Clues and Makes Discoveries—Story of Boston Young Woman Who Was Brought to Bridgeport by Advertisement.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker left their lodgings at 253 Gilbert street suddenly, Saturday afternoon, after the woman had been subjected to some disagreeable questions by a representative of the Evening Farmer. Mrs. Baker is the woman who has figured under several aliases in obtaining board for infants brought from different parts of Massachusetts and whom Mrs. William Russell of 696 Main street, accuses of neglecting to pay board for an infant taken away last Friday night.

Saturday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Russell left the house, 253 Gilbert street, where they had been rooming for several weeks. Although the time for which they had paid for the room had expired they neglected to notify Mrs. Mills, their landlady, that they would not return. They took the keys and left a quantity of worthless material behind.

Investigator Alexander Morrissey, of the Board of Charities has been following the clues since the case was reported to him Friday. He has traced the last of the four infants left with Mrs. Russell to a family in the East End where Mrs. Baker took the infant Friday night, after nine o'clock. Several weeks ago Mrs. Baker left an infant with a family living on Hewitt street. Mrs. Baker has been traced to Thomas P. Burns, John Neff and Ward M. Cowles are said to be the candidates of the Interstate Association. The fourth contestant for the place is Joseph Pacquette who has some support from Interstate association and who is also a member of the union.

Members of the Interstate Association do not want the union's candidate to get the job. They believe they can have one of them made the caucus nominee.

Mayor Lee says he is holding up the report of the committee in order to talk the matter over with several persons.

Neighbor Sues a Neighbor for Slander

Mary Claims Mrs. Dolinsky Called Her a Poisoner of Children.

Sheriff Max Cohen attached property in Church street, today, in a suit for slander brought against Elizabeth Dolinsky by Mary Miller. The plaintiff asks $100 damages, alleging that Mrs. Miller gave birth to still child. She recovered and was discharged from the hospital. Later she called on the physician and paid him for his services. At the hospital the woman told of the circumstances connected with her arrival in this city. She had answered an advertisement in Boston paper and had come to this city for her accommodation. She said she paid Mrs. Baker $60 which was to cover all the expenses of her confinement and the board and medical attendance. Mrs. Baker did not pay the physicians and the victim afterwards sent the money to this city.

A young woman now engaged as a housemaid in this city obtained a position through Mrs. Baker, to whom she gave $10 to get her a job.

The authorities believe that Mrs. Baker did general board and business in infants. She is believed to have made an easy living through this channel.

Deaths and Funerals.

The funeral of Dennis W. Dolan, a well known resident of the South End, whose death occurred on Friday at his home, 178 Atlantic street, at 8:30 o'clock and from Sacred Heart church at 9, where Rev. He was brought to this city by a train followed at the Bridgeport Hospital. Cullen is a young man. He was caught by a train while waiting to catch a freight.

IMMORTALITY IS HOPE'S FINEST STAR

Inflame a man's mind with some great hope; fill his soul with some great grief; torture his heart with some great sorrow; and he will find himself, how pathetically inadequate, how feeble and the scalp, and will endeavor to escape from the grasp of the great depths of eternity. Logic cannot convince, because men cannot stand upon the same ground, nor logic can convince, because men cannot stand upon the same ground, nor logic can convince, because men cannot stand upon the same ground.

The hope of immortality is the grandest star that ever swung across the night of man's dark mind. It has been the hope of all ages, and it will be the hope of all ages. It is the hope of all ages, and it will be the hope of all ages. It is the hope of all ages, and it will be the hope of all ages.

That came at evening, when the hush of the day, so worn and long, Into the silver of a song.

SCHUSSLER MAY CROSS STREET

The County Commissioners this morning granted the application of Fred Schussler to transfer his liquor license from 215 Fairbrook street across the street to 2253. When the application was first put in there were a number of remonstrances against the change, but they have since dwindled down to three, while those in favor have increased to 30.

Happenings of Interest About The City.

Following the services of the People's Presbyterian church in Lincoln hall, yesterday afternoon, a meeting of the church corporation was held and the board of trustees of which Thomas P. Taylor is chairman, was re-elected. The exception of Darius W. Marshall, who has removed to Pennsylvania. D. C. Wheeler was elected to fill the vacancy. The other members of the board are William C. Bowers, M. D., Edward P. Bullard, Jr., Edward Deacon, Roderick J. McKenize, Stephen C. Osborne, John A. F. Saxon, and Charles W. Walker. E. H. Miller was elected treasurer to succeed himself.

In connection with the lesson on temperance, at the People's Presbyterian Sunday school, yesterday, a chalk talk was given by P. J. Wynkoop, strikingly illustrating the points of the lesson.

Mrs. Louis Hinzinger was pleasantly surprised last evening at her home, 1045 Barnum avenue, by twelve women friends. The occasion was the birthday of the hostess. The friends brought several handsome gifts with them. A pleasant evening was spent and the party was entertained by Louis Hinzinger, son of the hostess, who is a most capable pianist. The guests were: Mrs. Carl Simons, Mrs. T. Parrott, Mrs. H. Velew, Mrs. H. Reilly, Mrs. Langhammer, Mrs. H. Setzer, Mrs. H. Mailden, Mrs. A. Albus, Mrs. H. Kohlmann, Mrs. C. W. Giger, Mrs. A. Turner, and Mrs. L. Hinzinger, the mother of her husband.

Francis C. Mizer has been presented with a kit of tools by the members of a local engine company as a token of their esteem. Mr. Mizer is to take up his residence in Providence R. I. within a few days with his son, James C. Mizer, formerly a buyer with the Howland Dry Goods Co. Mr. F. C. Mizer was in business in Utica N. Y. for several years, but has been residing for some time while here he resided in Courtland street, near the engine house and became a regular caller upon the firemen who became quite attached to him. He possessed a bountiful store of stories and a memory which retained the happenings of his younger days.

$3,000 FIRE AT STAMFORD. (Special from United Press.) Stamford, March 29.—A building of frame and iron, 29-A, building of the Celuloid Sapola Company used as a distilling plant was destroyed to-day causing a loss of $3,000. The fire was caused by the blowing off of a manhole cover, allowing the flames from furnaces used for heating to connect with gases in the building.

HOWLAND'S

Entrances on Main street, Fairfield avenue and Cannon street.

Bridgeport, Conn., Monday, March 29, 1909. The Weather—Partly cloudy to night and Tuesday.

HOWLAND'S

Hat-beauty.

Even the most-exaggerated hat-styles of the season can be given real beauty by a skillful designer. They can be so deftly trimmed and so cleverly fashioned that they will impart distinctive grace to the wearer. Not always is it easy to do this; but it can be done. It has been done in the hats that are a part of the Howland collection and that show most-dictinctively the shapes which are classed as most-pronounced.

This collection of spring hats is, by the way, the best that ever the store made. A lot of folks have been good enough to say it is the best they ever saw hereabouts. It is complete. It is full of examples of good style. It fairly brims over with illustrations of taste and judgment in the combining of colors and materials. It is full of individual hats; hats that will appeal to women as planned especially for them.

Value for price is another feature. This store aims to give a good money's worth for every dollar spent in millinery, as in all other sorts of merchandise. How well it is doing, you can best tell by inspecting the hats and then looking at the prices they bear. That will tell the story.

It is fine time now to choose. Sales-folks can give you careful attention. There are lots of hats to choose from. And if none suits, there is ample time to plan and make one exactly in accord with your ideas.

DAVIES WILL GO TO OLIN M. E. CHURCH

Other Methodist Pastors Who Will Be Moved at Conference.

Rev. A. R. Davies, pastor of the Trinity M. E. church, who conducted a crusade against the display of nude pictures in barrooms a few years ago, is to leave this city after a pastorate of four years. He has been an active worker in no-license campaigns, making house to house campaigns and doing real effective work.

Rev. Mr. Davies has accepted a call to the M. E. church in the Bronx, Greater New York, where the salary will be larger. Olin M. E. church is a modern structure, completed three years ago. It has a seating capacity of 1,200 and its acoustic properties are said to be the finest in New York city.

The assignment of Rev. Mr. Davies to the new charge will be made at the New York East Conference which opens tomorrow afternoon at which Bishop Daniel E. Goodsell presiding. Two other Methodist ministers who will leave this city as a result of the conference are Rev. E. F. Saxon of Newfield M. E. church, and Rev. C. S. Ball of Summerfield M. E. church.

Jail Gang Works on Court House Grounds

For the first time in the history of the Fairfield county jail, a gang of prisoners were allowed to leave the jail and its work behind them, to do work elsewhere for the county authorities. This morning Overseer Michael Murphy, under the direction of the county commissioners, with a gang of six prisoners, undertook to do the grading at the County Court House on Golden Hill street. The work will extend over a period of a week during which time the men will eat at the court house, and will be returned at night to the retreat on North avenue.

Wallace Ufford appeared at the Emergency hospital, Saturday and Dr. Ives closed a deep wound over his right eye with three stitches.

A suit and a hat for Boy.

is all ready for him to put in the Boys' Shop. It is the sort of a suit and a hat that will meet his idea of what is right. It is also the sort that will meet your notion of what your money ought to buy. It is good value as well as good style. In fact it is better value than you have been used to getting for your money. It is, in other words, the sort of value which has made the Boys' Shop one of the most-liked places in the store.

The suit at $5 is a fair illustration. We pick this price because it is a liked price when a good suit is being bought. In this store, the $5 suit is a wonder. It is excellent fabric to begin with. It is made especially well. It has good lines and good lining. It is so tailored that it will hold its shape. And then, to finish up, it has two pairs of trousers instead of the usual single pair.

Every suit is a Double-service suit. Each one will give extra wear because it possesses two pairs of trousers.

Yes, these suits are such as sell in other stores usually for at least $1 or $1.50 more. But here they are, in many color effects and in varied style and in all sizes, at $5.

We've some special straw hats just now. Yes, straw! It is the opening of the season for small boys' straw hats. And here we are with a lot of them at much less than real value.

Milan and novelty straw braids, white red blue and brown, in a dozen different shapes and sizes, trimmed in contrast and with taste.

They are worth $1 to $1.50. Choose at 75c Front basement.

Chicken Pie Supper

Feature of Apron Sale

Three Nights Will Be Given to Unique Festival Arranged by Ladies of People's Church.

Lincoln hall, 62 Cannon street, will take on a new guise this week, when on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday the Ladies' Aid society of the People's Presbyterian church will hold an apron sale. The sale will go on both afternoon and evening, admission being entirely free at all times. A chicken pie supper will be served on Tuesday evening, and for this the tickets are twenty-five cents. The hall will be decorated by Gaylord, and all the waitresses, without exception, will wear pretty costumes.

That which will cause the hall to take on unusual guise will be the county store and grocery. In neatness and orderliness of arrangement it will far excel the village store of yesterday, and in extent and variety of goods displayed for sale it will outstrip the rival stores of to-day.

A Greek, a true son of old Alexander the Great, is coming from lower East Side of New York with his pushtat and fruits.

Musical features will enliven the program each evening. On Tuesday there will be solos by Douglas Owen and other vocalists; on Wednesday evening, music by the Keeler Ladies' orchestra; on Wednesday, solos and duets by William Chew, the popular tenor soloist of the Church of the Sacred Heart, and Mrs. Alene Lyons, who has been singing in the People's church so acceptably during the winter.

The members of the Schwaebischer Maennerchor will sing at the grave of August Busse, a former member of the society, tomorrow afternoon, during the burial service in Park cemetery. The members will meet for rehearsal at the society's hall in French street at 1:30 o'clock.
